From the Deputy Principal

Welcome back to a shorter but busy term 4 and what a week it has been!

Our thoughts and prayers are with all those who have suffered losses and damage to their homes during the devastating rains and winds this week. Our school has remained relatively unscathed except for some water in 1 or 2 rooms.

We were reminded of how effective a communication tool the D6 Communicator is on Tuesday when we were able, throughout the day, to keep parents up to date and informed on decisions and plans. Our priority is always to keep our precious little ones safe and calm and I thank my staff for their professional attitude and care. Mr Dennis Dladla our caretaker and guard at the main gate is a real treasure at times like these!

Please remember it is important to always first and foremost keep informed via the School D6 Communicator which will always have the most accurate and reliable information. Do not rely on social media, (whatsapp group chats included), which can often be alarming and misleading.

Another reminder about the hair and uniform check on Friday, 20 October. Please ensure your child arrives at and leaves school looking neat and smart.
